Hi Jeremy

As promised for a job well done

I had previously worked for an organisation that had utilised the services of Designbp for their website construction and production of a brochure.

When I joined Nufast Limited as Sales Manager in 2006, we had no website or brochure; I immediately contacted Designbp and requested them to produce both a brochure and website. We were looking for something different, which would grab the attention of potential customers.

I was particularly impressed by their willingness to listen to our requirements and take on board what we were hoping to achieve. The Final product in both criteria has achieved exactly what we were looking for and we have already received numerous enquiries via the website in particular.

I would have no doubt in recommending the services of Designbp to anyone, and I am already considering new projects for them to assist in the development of Nufast Limited.
